Address: Running Loops

Bedrooms: 3 Bathrooms: 2

Running Loops

This stylish home-from-home is in Chicago's artistic and culinary zeitgeist - South Loop. A cool and creative neighbourhood, known for its lively music scene, bold architecture and history, you're within walking distance from the Museum Campus and Art Institute - perfect for city-breakers and culture vultures alike. Making ingenious use of the space, the apartment has everything you need to feel comfortable, whether you're a working professional or exploring the Windy City. Bathed in natural light from vast windows with skyline views, the interior benefits from minimalist furnishings, soothing tones of blue, grey and white, plus plenty of curated plants that create a homely ambience. After a spot of sightseeing, check out the glorious food downtown for a slice of the iconic deep-dish pizza. Just a short stroll away from Grant Park, you're well-positioned for a working break or post-lunch meander. On top of that, picturesque Lake Michigan is mere footsteps from your home - it's safe to say you're well in the loop here.
