Baby Blues

Leaving town for business doesn't have to be a chore. With a stay in this home, even work travel can be made fun. The private home office and building's business centre help you get the last emails sent in time for you to hit the rooftop hammocks or the pool for a quick dip before heading out for the evening. And when it comes to the night's leisure activities, you couldn't wish for a better location - this bright, cheerful home is on the banks of the South Platte River, within walking distance of Denver's cultural attractions, green spaces, and right in the middle of the lively bar and dining scene. This close to the action, you can stroll along the riverside, head to one of the city's hottest restaurants, and still be back in time to relax on the comfortable couch before heading to bed.
