I'm With The Band

This bright apartment located in the music hub of South Loop is perfect for a family holiday in Chicago. You'll have options for outings galore, with jazz bars and restaurants at your doorstep, as well as iconic sites like Chess Records, once home to legends like Chuck Berry and Muddy Waters. After a day out with the kids, head back to have a movie night on the comfy couch in front of the flat-screen TV, or have a glass of wine on the private terrace to take in stunning city views. We love the floor-to-ceiling windows here that fill the flat with sunshine, while the chic furnishings and fully-equipped kitchen make for an ideal home away from home.
