Area

Elegant, renovated and functional apartment located in the central neighborhood of La Latina, which has everything you need to fully enjoy your stay. This area is located in a great point of interest in the city, bordered by widely touristic neighborhoods such as Austrias, Sol-Gran Vía and Lavapiés, each of which will offer a vision of Madrid, from a more cultural, gastronomic and leisure perspective. The streets of La Latina have a medieval origin, which makes it more attractive, mostly with irregular and narrow layouts that lead to beautiful squares, among them you will find the Plaza de la Cebada, where the market once took place. supplies, Plaza de los Carros, Plaza de la Paja and El Rastro, the most famous open-air market in Madrid. One of the most iconic areas of the city, where you can breathe the atmosphere and essence of Madrid. Perfectly connected just a few minutes from the La Latina and Puerta Toledo metro and interconnected with the city's extensive transport network.
